

The Indiana Association of School Principals recently named Richmond High School principal Rae Woolpy the 2010 Assistant Principal of the year for District 6

. Congressman Pence today sent the following letter congratulating Principal Woolpy:

October 4, 2010

Dear Ms. Rae Woolpy,

It is my honor and privilege to congratulate you on being named the 2010 Assistant Principal of the Year. This honor is a testament to the commitment and dedication you have shown to your students and their families.

I am encouraged to hear about the 27 great years of service you have given to Indiana students as a teacher, athletic director, and assistant principal. I can think of no one who deserves this award more than you.

I admire your long-term dedication to Indiana students. I am appreciative of all that you have done for your students, including developing and nurturing a peer mentoring program. You are an inspiration to your colleagues all over the great state of Indiana, especially those in your community.

Best wishes as you continue to serve Richmond Community Schools. I look forward to hearing of your future success.

Sincerely,
Mike Pence
